AN OMINOUS MESSAGE COMES

From Shanghai Indicating That the Report That Catholics Have Been Murdered Is Only Too True.

London, July 7.—In response to inquiries cabled to Shanghai in regard to the situation at Peking, the following cablegram has been received from an authoritative source:

"Shanghai, July 5.

"Prepare to hear the worst."
There is a mass of wild rumors from the far east. Though so contradictory on most points, it continues unanimous as to the consummation of the tragedy at Peking.

Two consistent reports of the massacre of the white are now added the additional horrors that savage soldiery butchered at the capital 5,000 natives, Catholic converts. This comes in a Shanghai dispatch of July 5, which only adds to the reports given by respectable Chinese who have arrived from Chianfu, and who describe Peking as an inferno, the streets literally running with blood. They confirm numerous stories of executions and untold tortures inflicted on isolated foreigners and European soldiers captured by the mob. The authority of Yung Lu, the Chinese treasurer, who advocated moderation, was completely effaced by Prince Tuan Kang Yi and Tung Fuh Sian, who issued fresh edicts, ordering the merciless extermination of all foreigners in the empire.

The danger of a general revolt in China becomes more and more patent and Europe is being confronted with a rapidly increasing fear, not merely that the international column will be forced from Tien Tsin, but that the international troops at the colonies and treaty ports will stand in grave danger of expulsion. In view of the fact that the previous assurances of the viceroys have proved untrustworthy, their promises of protection for the whites are hardly convincing. In the meantime the hitherto unconquerable jealousies of the European powers stay the hands of Japan, though it is hoped an understanding will soon be reached. The foreign office here has dispatches from Tokio today, and the Associated Press understands that the Japanese government informed the foreign office that in addition to the forces already landed in China, Japan has 20,000 troops mobilized and ready for action at a moment's notice when she receives the mandate from the powers. England is now awaiting answers from the chancelleries to its proposals. The British cabinet had a long meeting today and fully considered the crisis.

MIND UNBALANCED.

The Heat of the Day Causes a
Chicago Woman to Seek
Her Destruction.

Chicago, July 6.—The labor of bending over an ironing board coupled with the overpowering heat of the day, did so much to prostrate Christina Johnson, a servant employed at 152 Sheffield avenue, that her mind became unbalanced to such an extent that she yesterday sought destruction by the flames of kerosene oil. Slipping into a closet she saturated her clothing and then applied a match.

The cries of the crazed woman attracted the attention of her employer, Hunt J. Jensen, who at once sought her out. She was then frantically tearing at her flaming garments and screaming maniacally. Quick to aid her Mr. Jensen grasped an article of bed clothing, with which he sought to envelop her form. She, however, fled from his humane advances and the race around the upper room of the house was begun under most pathetic and exciting circumstances.

MAD RACE WITH EMPLOYER.
The servant whose mental derangement stood in the way of her reasoning power, led her employer a mad race around the room while she shrieked from the effects of the fire, which was then shriveling her flesh. Two or three times she dropped upon her knees, but by superhuman efforts she regained her feet only to dodge Jensen with renewed activity.

THINKS OF ENEMIES.
Meantime she called out that enemies were in pursuit. This hallucination had possessed her since the hour of her prostration by the heat, but it was not suspected by the Jensen family that the notion was more than temporary.

Finally, after a most trying pursuit, Jensen, aided by his wife, who was attracted by the screams of the young woman, succeeded in catching her and removing whatever portions of her garments which had not been destroyed. The sufferer fought desperately, but Mrs. Jensen held her down while her husband poured water upon the half-smoldering portions of clothing which clung to the roasted limbs and body of the victim.

During the interval a police ambulance had been summoned by Officer Fred Miller of the Larabee street station. This policeman, although a block away, had heard the shrieking of the stricken woman. Still crying aloud in her agony and while insisting that enemies were in pursuit to take her life, she was taken to the German hospital, where surgeons expressed the opinion that her burns would cause death.

Mr. Fred Holderman and Miss Mary Schmidt were married at the parsonage of the First United Evangelical church on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The pastor, A. Evans, performed the ceremony.
